The Defense Set Up by Gerry Agents Becker and Finn.

A General Denial Entered by Them to Sophie Martens's Charges.

Finn Says Mrs. Martens Told Him She Paid the Police.

The prosecution has presented the evirether off light, and that he marked the money and made all the arrangements to espeure the men when they received it. His ward betective Smith has sworn to the story of the arrest and the finding of the money in a gutter as told in The Eversking Woman bands and the finding of the money in a gutter as told in The Eversking Woman and smith's testimony has been corroborated by Policeman Quinn, who arrested Finn as he was running away after Desective Smith had fred a shot to summon assistance.

Lawyer Jerome, counsel for the accused men, in his opening address, denounced the arrest as a conspiracy on the part of the well-man and the police, and said it was a questiful of veracity between the witnesses for the prosecution and those he would call. In support of these statements he placed a number of witnesses upon the stand to testify to the good character of his clients, and then Becker was called and made ageneral cental of the charge made against himself.
